

‘Enabling Access and Independence –
Translating Ageing Research Evidence to Practice and Policy’
Forum - Thursday, 17 August : 1.00 p.m. – 4.30 p.m.

12.00noon -1.00pm	Lunch Gryphon Gallery, Level 1
1.00pm - 1.05pm	Welcome Multifunction Room, Level 1	Prof Hal Kendig, National Convenor of ARC/NHMRC Ageing Well Network
1.05pm - 1.30pm	VicLANES: disseminating research for health promotion	Amanda Tattam, University of Melbourne
1.30pm - 2.00pm	Planning for Healthy Communities	Rachel Carlisle, Manager - Physical Activity, National Heart Foundation
2.00pm - 2.30pm	Transport and Mobility: RACV Research and Policy	Anne Harris, RACV
2.30pm- 2.50pm	Policy and research relationships from a government perspective	Emma Fell, Dept. of Infrastructure. Alison Beckett, Dept. of Human Services. Trevor Fleming, Dept. of Victorian Communities.
2.50pm - 4.20pm	Afternoon tea Workshops
4.20pm -4.30pm	Where to next	Prof C Browning, Healthy Ageing Theme, Victorian Convenor

This Forum is hosted by the ARC/NHMRC Research Network in Ageing Well, supported by the Department of Human Services, the Department of Infrastructure, the Department of Victorian Communities, the Council on the Ageing (Victoria) and the Australian Association of Gerontology (Victorian Division)

